Cosmic Chemistry: Do Science and God Mix?

24 September 2019 / 18:15 / ETH Zurich HG F30

There is a prevalent conviction that science has eradicated the need for God. Professor Lennox will open a discussion on why this might not be the case.

John Lennox is Professor of Mathematics at the University of Oxford and Fellow in Mathematics and Philosophy of Science. He is an internationally renowned speaker on the interface of science, philosophy and religion.

The lecture is hosted by VBG, the Christian Student Association of the ETH and University of Zurich, in partnership with CAMPUS live, Dozentenforum and Festival of Thought.
